

A message from Fr. Earl:
JUBILEE YEAR 2025:
Pilgrims of Hope

Primer for the Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope. This three-part series will focus on themes relevant to the Jubilee Year theme: Pilgrims of Hope. The sessions will guide us in prayerful reflections and practices to prepare for an inner journey of renewal and refreshed hope during the Jubilee Year. Each session will include Instruction, scripture, quiet, and sharing using the Synodal Process (Walking with, listening to ...) and Jubilee Year themes.

The sessions are at 7:00 A.T. (7:30 N.T., 6:00 E.T. and adjust for other zones.) on Thursdays January 30, February 06 and February 13, 2025.

In this series we will use breakout rooms. These are smaller groups with opportunity for easier sharing. They are not complicated! We will guide you through the simple directions of getting into and out of the breakout rooms. But we need to know how many breakout rooms to prepare for. So, we ask that you reply to indicate your intention to participate. When you reply, I will send you the link for the series. Just hit the "Reply" button or icon and let me know you're interested.

For more information or to register for this series send an email to atlanticignatianministry@gmail.com by January 27, 2025.

Please feel free to distribute this information to others who might be interested.

Blessings and best regards,

The Miracle Club (Ireland/UK 2023). The final film in the illustrious career of beloved star Maggie Smith, this gentle comedy/drama about a small-town trio of singers who win a pilgrimage to Lourdes will appeal to adults both younger and older. While a trip to Lourdes has been the lifelong dream of Lily (Maggie Smith), her BFF Eileen (Kathy Bates) wishes to go there to pray for the healing of a tumour, and their fellow singer Dolly hopes that a visit to Lourdes will cure her son's inability to speak. In Lourdes, the women may not receive the healings they seek, but nevertheless find healings they never expected. (A number of mature themes make this a film for adults only.)
